

Federal law should only supersede State law when the Federal law is tougher than the State law. I'm on both Federal and State DO NOT CALL lists because I do not want telemarketers to call and bother me. If I need or desire a service or product, I along with millions of other citizens will contact the vendor. I believe that the FCC should not interfere with State law. These comments will also be sent to my elected officials.